

186.13 THOMAS PAINE MEMORIAL

Mr. CLAY moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1628) to authorize the construction of a monument in the District of Columbia or its environs to honor Thomas Paine, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, recognized Mr. CLAY and Mr. BARRETT, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,
The question being put, viva voce,
Will the House suspend the rules and pass said bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said bill was passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

186.14 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 502 AND H.R. 5318

Mr. FROST, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 514):

Resolved, That upon adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 502) disapproving the extension of nondiscriminatory treatment (most-favored-nation) to the products of the People's Republic of China. The joint resolution shall be debatable for one hour, to be equally divided and controlled by Representatives Solomon of New York and Representative Rostenkowski of Illinois or their designees. Pursuant to sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1974, the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion. All points of order against consideration are hereby waived with respect to the measures specified in this section and section 3 of this resolution.

SEC. 2. The provisions of sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1974 shall not apply to any other joint resolution disapproving the extension of most-favored-nation treatment to the People's Republic of China for the remainder of the One Hundred Second Congress.

SEC. 3. After disposition of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 502), it shall be in order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 5318) regarding the extension of most-favored-nation treatment to the products of the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes. The bill shall be debatable for one hour, to be equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the amendments recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means now printed in the bill, which shall be considered en bloc and which shall not be subject to a demand for a division of the question, and on the bill to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. FROST, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

186.15 CHINA MFN STATUS DISAPPROVAL

Mr. ROSTENKOWSKI, pursuant to House Resolution 514, called up the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 502) disapproving the extension of nondiscriminatory treatment (most-favored-nation treatment) to the products of the People's Republic of China.

When said joint resolution was considered and read twice.

After debate,
Pursuant to sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1974, the previous question was considered as ordered.

The joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

The question being put, viva voce,
Will the House pass said joint resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MAZZOLI, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. SOLOMON objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.
